

The Nobility and Titled of The Shattered Lands

Updated 1/1/16

Many changes took place throughout the lands after The Shattering. Kingdoms rose and fell. Below is a listing of the known nobility and titled that exist throughout The Shattered Lands. Some, like the Dwarfs, Ra'hanaen Elves, and Kingdom of Stonegate remain incomplete at this time.

Kingdom of Lorne, The Lands of Vale

Since the war with Kotra and The Shattering, the capital of the Kingdom is now Mythamber. Once called the Kingdom of Stonegate, after the war it is now known as the Kingdom of Lorne. Many of the noble titles continue from the old Kingdom, but the Royal House has new titles to fit the needs of the new lands. The Kingdom is focused on protecting the people and upholding the principles of the Kingdom, set forth by Palinor Lorne, the founder of the original Stonegate. After many names you will see marked the "Hero of X Rebellion." This is an honorary that denotes active participants in the rebellions against Kotra's seizure of Stonegate lands. Should anyone have been missed, please contact us.*

Kingdom of Stonegate – Kalandia

Stonegate City, once the capital of the Kingdom of Lorne, it was the seat of the Freeing of Stonegate from the tyrannical rule of the Lorne family. Upholding strict laws against necromancy and Undead, Kotra remains in charge and now administers to the Kingdom of Stonegate. While the House of Stonegate oversees the general running of the city and lands, they are considered members of Kotra. The Knights of Kotra fully administer the law throughout the land and are not listed here at this time. The honorary of “Freer of X” denotes those that participated in the freeing of Stonegate from Lorne control.*
